

Landtype

1:24,000 scale landtype coverage for the Idaho Panhandle National Forests. Properties of soils, landform, natural vegetation and bedrock are commonly components of Landtype delineation used to evaluate potentials and limitations for land use. Note: Landtypes delineated outside the Idaho Panhandle National Forests' boundary have not been ground truthed.